

RigidGems™ Limited Edition Software License Agreement

15 May. 2020

I. Meisters Inc.

I. Meisters limits the use to customers within the scope of the purpose (hereinafter referred to as the "purpose of use") and the purpose defined in this Agreement, and not to the acts not prohibited by this Agreement. The non-exclusive right to use the software (hereinafter referred to as the "license") is granted with consideration paid by the customer at the Unity Asset Store.

However, the grant of this license may be terminated without prior notice. If the license agreement is terminated, the customer will not be able to use this software. In addition, if there is an indication of the usable period individually, the license agreement will be terminated at the end of that period, and the customer will not be able to use this software.

1. Intended use

The customer will use this software for the purpose of using it as a library when developing software with Unity. The customer may not use this software for any other purpose.
